The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows, and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, March 11, 1929.

Whereas, The President has seen fit to retain in his cabinet Andrew J. Mellon, as Secretary of the Treasury, and therefore saw no reason to submit the name of Mr. Mellon to the United States Senate for approval; and

Whereas, A little group of malcontents in that body have seized upon this incident as a publicity vehicle for themselves and an opportunity to embarrass both the President and Mr. Mellon; and

Whereas, We believe that an overwhelming majority of the members of the United States Senate and the citizens of the United States recognize the past services of Mr. Mellon in the Cabinet for what they were, the great and outstanding work of a great and outstanding man without parallel in the history of our country; and

Whereas, The citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania look with pride and admiration and faith upon this great public servant, their fellow citizen; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, through the medium of this resolution, go on record as condemning the unjust and unfair criticism of the President in this incident, and express to the Secretary of the Treasury our unbounded faith in him as a public servant and admiration and respect of him as a man.

use of certain drugs, and keeping records thereof; by regulating the use of drugs in the treatment of the drug habit; by providing for the revocation and suspension of licenses of physicians, dentists, veterinarians, pharmacists, druggists, and registered nurses for certain causes, and by providing for the enforcement of this act, and penalties;" providing that the Department of Health may lawfully furnish to the Department of Revenue the list of habitual users of drugs.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of Senate Bill No. 781, the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, certainly.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will ask that Senator Freeman briefly explain the bill. I have not read it, and do not know what it is.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, the purpose of this bill is entirely stated in the last two lines of the title. It provides that the Department of Health may lawfully furnish to the Department of Revenue a list of the habitual users of drugs. There is, at the present time, a provision that certain physicians may treat habitual drug users, but the names of such users must be left with the Department of Health; and under the present law the Department of Health is prohibited from giving the information and the names of the users to any other person.

It is desired that the right to have access to these names be given to the proposed new Department of Revenue, so that this list of names may be available in connection with the licensing of automobile drivers. It is felt that the lodging of that information with the Department of Revenue will enable that department to prohibit the licensing of drug addicts as drivers of motor vehicles.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman, if he has any objection to putting this bill over in its order.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, for action tomorrow?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I am quite agreeable.

We pause in the rush of life for communion with Thee. We bow our heads in solemn adoration and await manifestation of divine grace in our hearts. Thou hast endowed us with ambitions, but we know that we can do nothing of our selves and without Thy succor. Aid us in fulfilling that promise of life and service to Thee for which we were brought forth on this earth. Wash us clean of that which is earthly and commonplace in Thy sight, and let Thy light shine into our hearts. Come Thou, O God, and reveal Thy power. Take possession of this restless world and transform it by Thy grace. Direct the movement of governments and fill the earth with righteousness and peace. Make us willing subjects of Thine. Bless our beloved nation. Bless the President of these United States and his cabinet, the Governor of this Commonwealth, the Speaker of the House and all others who direct business here, and finally when Thou art done with us in this world, own and save us all. We ask all in his His name. Amen.

RESOLUTION.

INFORMATION REQUESTED FROM UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES.

Mr. BATCHELOR offered the following resolution, which was twice read and laid over under the rules:

In the House of Representatives, March 11, 1929.

Whereas, A large number of the youth of Pennsylvania having completed the scholastic requirements for admission to the medical schools of our Commonwealth and desiring to continue the study of the science of the healing arts are unable to secure admission into the medical schools located in the Commonwealth; and

Whereas, The General Assembly at each biennial session appropriates large sums of money to universities or colleges having medical schools; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the University of Pennsylvania, Jefferson Medical College, Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania, Hahnemann Medical College, Temple University, all of Philadelphia, and the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, shall submit without delay, the following information to the General Assembly of the State of Pennsylvania: First, the number of students that sought admission to the one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight freshman class of their medical school; second, the number of medical students admitted to the one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight freshman class of their medical school; and third, the number of such medical students admitted to the one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight freshman class of their medical school who are residents of Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives forward a copy of these resolutions to the deans of the medical schools hereinbefore mentioned.

RESOLUTION.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

Mr. VOLTZ offered a resolution, and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, March 11, 1929.

Whereas, The President has seen fit to retain in his Cabinet Andrew W. Mellon, as Secretary of the Treasury, and therefore saw no reason to submit the name of Mr. Mellon to the United States Senate for approval; and

Whereas, A little group of malcontents in that body have seized upon this incident as a publicity vehicle for themselves, and an opportunity to embarrass both the President and Mr. Mellon; and

Whereas, We believe that an overwhelming majority of the members of the United States Senate and the citizens of the United States recognize the past services of Mr. Mellon in the Cabinet for what they were, the great and outstanding work of a great and outstanding man without parallel in the history of our country; and

Whereas, The citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania look with pride and admiration and faith upon this great public servant, their fellow citizen; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, through the medium of this resolution, go on record as condemning the unjust and unfair criticism of the President in this incident, and express to the Secretary of the Treasury our unbounded faith in him as a public servant and admiration and respect of him as a man.

The resolution was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REPORT OF HOUSE COMMITTEE TO SECURE ADDITIONAL COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. BLUMBERG presented the report of the Committee to arrange for additional committee rooms, which was read as follows:

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives,

Your Committee duly appointed under resolution number one to confer with the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings with a view of securing additional committee rooms during the remainder of the session of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine herewith reports:

That four additional rooms on the Fifth Floor of the South Wing of the Capitol Building, being room numbers 620, 620A, 613 and 614 have been furnished and equipped for the exclusive use by the House Committees; and joint use of the Senate Caucus Room and Senate Room 544 and 546 on the E Floor, North Wing of the Capitol Building, are also available for use by the House Committees, providing arrangements are made by the Chairmen desiring the use of the said rooms with Mr. Herman Miller or Mr. Albert Cooper of the Senate Library for said use.

The Committee respectfully suggests that the House Committee Chairmen meet and apportion the use of these rooms between them so as to avoid conflict. It is believed that with these extra rooms the committees should be able to function without interference. It is hoped that with these additional rooms the business of the House Committees may be conducted for the remainder of the Session with greater convenience and despatch.

The Committee, however, reports that the use of these rooms are satisfactory only as a temporary make shift for the remainder of the Session and that because of their distance from the House they should not be made permanent. The Committee is of the opinion that the Administrative Code should be amended so that the House of Representatives shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the Committee rooms that it needs and that these rooms be not subject to annual change and disposition by the Department of Property and Supplies. In order to effect this purpose they are preparing a bill for introduction to amend the code in this respect.

Respectfully submitted,

A. M. BLUMBERG.
Chairman.
MABELLE M. KIRKBRIDE.
PAUL G. ADAMS.

March 11, 1929.

The SPEAKER. The report will be spread at length upon the Legislative Journal and the committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is the last announcement I shall make regarding your big banquet tomorrow night. I told you a week ago that the tickets were going very fast and there will be no tickets. I don't think, tomorrow, and I ask you to attend to that matter tonight. We have received word from the theatrical agency at Pittsburgh that the talent will be on hand promptly. The doors will be opened in the ballroom of the Penn-Harris Hotel tomorrow evening at seven o'clock and we would like you to be there by that time. There will be no reserved seats. Those who come first will get to the table first. The dress that you will wear will be informal. I was going to tell you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that the reason why we are going to dress informally was that there were no Tuxedos around in St. Patrick's time, so tomorrow night we will follow the custom of real fellows, and you will come just as you are at seven o'clock.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be spread at length on the Legislative Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. BRAHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BRAHAM. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I refer to page 1098 of the Legislative Journal. On Senate Bill No. 56, House Bill No. 512, I asked at the time of the roll call to be recorded as voting "No." I was not so recorded and I ask that the correction be made.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman on his question of personal privilege will be spread at length on the Legislative Journal.

NAYS—3.

Moore, D. G.,	Patterson, F. W	Reader,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 884, entitled:

An Act to amend section five, article four of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, (P. L. 568), entitled "An act providing for the incorporation, regulation, and government of cities of the third class; regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein; and repealing consolidating, and extending existing laws in relation thereto," as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1190, entitled:

An Act relating to the employment of persons in the service of the Commonwealth.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, this bill that the House is now considering, as I understand it, provides that "It shall be unlawful for any department, board, commission or agency of the State Government, or any officer thereof, to deny any person employment in the servcie of the Commonwealth on account of his or her age." While as we read the bill it presents no difficulty to understand, it seems to me that the House might be informed by the sponsor exactly what this measure seeks to accomplish.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, after the passage of the administration code during the time of the Pinchot administration, it seems that the salary board adopted a rule whereby no one should be employed over the age of fifty. This applies particularly to those in lesser positions, it does not seem to have effected in any way the heads of departments.

I am informed that this rule is carried out so far as to affect even caretakers on highways and in instances laborers. I have in my desk a letter from a gentleman living in Lancaster in which he encloses a reply from the Highway Department refusing his application for a position because he was fifty-one years of age. In that letter he states that he was born and raised in Harrisburg, is a property owner in Harrisburg, and now living in Lancaster. He insists that he is in a good physical condition today as at any time in his life.

What I am getting at in this bill is to strike out what I think is a ridiculous ruling of the salary board, which I understand was inspired by Mr. King, who was then Secretary of the Commonwealth. That is the only thing I am aiming at in this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL NO. 495.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg.
March 7, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 495, file folio 203, entitled, "An Act to amend section two hundred and thirty-five of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled 'An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto' as amended increasing the minimum pay of supervisors."

JOHN S. FISHER.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 22.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Governor's Office, Harrisburg
March 7, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 22, file folio 989, entitled, "An Act fixing the salaries of tipstaves in courts of common pleas oyer and terminer and general jail delivery quarter sessions of the peace and orphans' courts in counties of the second class and in the county court of Allegheny County."

This bill would fix at two thousand six hundred dollars ($2,600) per year the salaries of all tipstaves in the courts of counties of the second class and in the county court of Allegheny County.

At the present time salaries of tipstaves, except those in the county court of Allegheny County, are fixed by the salary boards in counties of the second class. The President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of each such county is constituted a member of the salary board when such salaries are to be fixed.

The maximum salary which can be paid to tipstaves under the present law is one thousand eight hundred dollars ($1,800) per annum.

The salaries of tipstaves in the county court of Allegheny County are now fixed by a majority of the board of judges of that court. There is no maximum limitation on the salaries to be fixed.

While I should be willing to approve a bill authorizing salary boards in counties of the second class to fix higher salaries for tipstaves I am unwilling to approve a bill which takes from the salary boards jurisdiction over this class of salaries.

To increase the salaries of tipstaves of the County Court of Allegheny County legislation is unnecessary.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill, together with the veto, be laid upon the table.

Mr. WM. T. BELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

HOUSE BILLS CONCURRED IN BY SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bills from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 19.

An Act for the compensation by counties of persons detained as material witnesses in criminal prosecutions.

HOUSE BILL No. 778.

An Act providing for the acceptance of a grant of land by the Commonwealth, located in Northumberland County, and releases of mortgages thereon and for the use and occupancy of such land.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

The SPEAKER. It affords the Chair pleasure to request at this time the privilege of the rostrum for the Honorable Franklin Spencer Edmonds, an ex-member of this body, who has served during a number of sessions with distinction. The Chair wishes to introduce at this time the Honorable Franklin Spencer Edmonds, who will now address us.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE FRANKLIN SPENCER EDMONDS.

HONORABLE FRANKLIN SPENCER EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it is a matter of great gratification to me that this opportunity has been afforded through the courtesy of the Speaker to exchange greetings with you. There are two reasons why I am gratified. In the first place, I count the friendship with the hundred odd members of the House with whom I served as one of the great privileges of my life, and that is one reason for my gratification. The second reason is, that this the only time I ever had the privilege to address the House at which the Honorable William Cloud Alexander, of Delaware County, will not have a chance to interrupt me, either with an interrogation or with a point of order, or with a reply, and that is an unusual experience for me.

I came to this House first in 1921, and had the pleasure of serving in 1921, 1923, 1925 and the special session of 1926. I think in some ways that it was a very fortunate thing for me that I had a few hobbies, although hobbies are dangerous things in that they eventually become obsessions. I want to say to the members of the House how very gratifying it is to know the way in which the other states are following the example of the Pennsylvania Legislature of 1925, when we enacted the principle of reciprocity in our inheritance taxation. Down to the beginning this year there were twenty-three states, the District of Columbia, and one province, that of Ontario, Dominion of Canada, that had accepted the Pennsylvania idea of reciprocity in the taxation on stocks and bonds of non-residents. Since the first of January, when a number of the legislatures have been in session, we now add to that number the State of Arkansas, the State of South Carolina, the State of Wyoming, and the State of Indiana, where the Governor signed the bill only yesterday. Pennsylvania has given more new ideas in state taxation than any other state in the Union.

Our capital stock taxation is the beginning of corporation taxation in the tax system of the States. Our collateral inheritance tax, which is over one hundred years old, is the oldest one in State taxation. Our inheritance tax is the oldest one we can find in the country. Our four mill personal property tax for county purposes is the first attempt at classified property tax that is to be found in the fiscal history of the country. In many ways Pennsylvania is a pioneer, and I rejoice for my part, that the idea of the tax known as the Pennsylvania plan or idea of reciprocity, which was drawn in this Hall in 1925, seems now likely to have unanimous approval throughout the country.

But there is danger in hobbies. Hampton Carson told me recently that he was once talking to Professor George Fisher of Yale and Professor Fisher said to him, "I was just through one of the insane asylums of the State on an inspection tour for the Governor. In one of the asylums that I visited, there was in one of the private rooms a fine looking young man who was finely booted and spurred and who was sitting astride of a trunk and holding the trunk straps in his hand, and he was riding for all he was worth. I said to him, 'Young man, that is a fine horse you are riding.' The young man said, 'That is not a horse.' I said to him, 'That is not a horse? Why that is very fine looking horse.' The young man said, 'That is not a horse, that is a hobby.' I said to him, 'What is the difference between a hobby and a horse anyhow?' And the young man said, 'If that was a horse I could dismount it, sir, but it is a hobby and I cannot.'"

I assure you there is a very great danger in having hobbies you cannot dismount, and the hobby of taxation is one I am afraid I cannot dismount.

I am glad to have the opportunity to exchange greetings and to express to the members of the House my hearty good wishes. I congratulate you on the comments I hear on the outside as to the care with which bills are being studied and the policies are being determined, and to assure you, which I feel sure you all know, that there is no experience in the world that is more precious to men who love that kind of life than the give and take of parliamentary experiences. As one who has participated with you, I am glad of this opportunity to exchange greetings.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. SCHRECK. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock.

Mr. W. H. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and at 10.52 o'clock P. M., the House adjourned until tomorrow morning at 11.00 o'clock.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 691, entitled:

An Act to amend section six of the act approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, (P. L. 534), entitled "An act relating to motion-picture films, reels, or steriopticon views or slides; providing a system of examination, approval, and regulation thereof, and of the banners, posters, and other like advertising matter used in connection therewith; creating the Board of Censors; and providing penalties for the violation of the act," excepting from examination under said act news reels and films or reels depicting local matters, or synchronized with conversation, dialogue or sound.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 691 is to remove censorship from the talking movies,—that is to say, reels synchronized with conversation, dialogue or sound. I requested the Board of Censors to furnish me with a sample of the eliminations that they have made from this new kind of movie, and I wish to read to the Senate two examples:

"Eliminate all views of Trask, a married man, and May a young girl, in the hotel at Long Island where they have spent the night in same bedroom and appear in negligee having breakfast together, with the following utterances of language by mechanical device:" Then follows the language, which I will spare you.

"Eliminate all views of Trask and May, Russell, Mr. Dean and Mrs. Trask in the hotel at Long Island, with the following utterances of language by mechanical device:"

"Eliminate all views of girls and men playing strip poker, girls taking off clothes, putting on table, hold dresses in front of them, man with card, etc., with following: 'Operator, get the police and some barrels! There's something coming off up here!"

Exhibit "A" that is. Now, I have here four telegrams,—one from New York, one from Maryland, one from Virginia and one from Ohio, stating that the censors in those States eliminate and delete in synchronized pictures as they do in the still movies.

This is an excerpt of the opinion of our Supreme Court recently handed down: "It is immaterial whether or not the sound film constitutes an entire 'talking picture' or is only a part or feature of it; the purpose and result of each are identical." The act was sustained by the Supreme Court.

A paragraph from a letter addressed to the Pennsylvania State Board of Censors reads as follows: "'Films or reels synchronized with conversation, dialogue or sound,' as a portion of the proposed amendments reads, have become part and parcel of every character of motion pictures, whether they be news, a depicting of local events, or of other character. In view of the present trend in the production and exhibition of motion pictures the practical effect of the proposed amendments is the elimination of all censorship."

A letter from the Secretary of the Board of Censors, at my request: "If this bill becomes a law it will nullify the recent decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and will practically abrogate the Act of May 13, 1915, establishing censorship of motion pictures.

"It will make it possible for the industry to flood the State with pictures which have been previously condemned in Pennsylvania and to replace in pictures scenes, views and subtitles formerly deleted by this Board as 'sacrilegious, obscene, indecent or immoral, or such as tend, in the judgment of the Board, to debase or corrupt morals.'

"This they can do by adding a little sound, or music, or dialogue to such pictures, which will exempt them, under the terms of Senate Bill No. 691, from censorship. It is possible to do this—that is, make such exempting additions to any existing picture—at slight cost and with mechanical ease."

The final exhibit is this list of telegrams. This campaign started on Thursday night. I will read about three.

This is from The Fathers' Association, representing 1700 men, also one representing 1000 women, from Cambria County, and one representing 25 women from Philadelphia. This represents 56,000 women (indicating another communication), and here is a telegram from Cardinal Dougherty: "In the name of millions of Catholics in Pennsylvania, I protest against Senate Bill 69."

Anyone who wants to read these may have the opportunity. Anyone who votes for this bill will be defeated by the women.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, if I am in order, I had intended to speak against this bill, but the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, has said everything that I was going to say; and I therefore move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Exposition Affairs.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Chaplain, Rev. Dr. Martin W. Schweitzer, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, Thou knowest in thy wisdom the many needs of Thy children in earth, but we know from Thy word that it is pleasing in Thy sight to have Thy children come to Thee in prayer and communion.

We come to Thee in love, we come to Thee in humility, we come to Thee in need, and we ask that Thou wilt extend Thy fatherly guidance to those who worship Thee everywhere.

Thou hast created us into this life so that we may exercise the faculties for service which Thou hast so graciously given.

Guide us in our daily course so that our lives may be an open book written in Thy honor and for Thy glory.

Accept the offering of our various talents, and take us home to Thee in Thine own space of time.

May Thy kingdom come and Thy will be done on earth as in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
